

Department of Psychology, School of Arts and Sciences
Associate/Assistant Professor, Clinical Psychology

The Department of Psychology at The Catholic University of America seeks to fill a Tenure-track Associate or Assistant Professor position in Clinical Psychology, to begin Fall 2024.

Applicants should have an ongoing research program with the potential to attract extramural grant funding and be committed to excellence in teaching, mentorship, and clinical training. We are particularly interested in those with programs of research and teaching interests in cultural diversity, underserved populations, and adult clinical psychology, but highly qualified applicants with a variety of interest areas will be considered. Expertise in advanced methodology and statistics is desirable, and candidates must be licensed or license-eligible in Washington, DC.

The Department offers BA, BS, MA, and PhD degrees, including an APA-accredited program in Clinical Psychology. Faculty have active research programs that attract external funding and involve national and international collaborations. The University is located on a 250-acre, park-like campus in northeast Washington DC, convenient to neighboring medical centers, universities, and laboratories including the NIH. The incoming class features the largest number of students of color and international students in its history. Additional information may be found on our website (<https://psychology.catholic.edu/>).

To apply, please submit the following documents via email to Mr. Vince Bunuan, at bunuan@cua.edu: 1) a curriculum vitae; 2) a research statement; 3) a teaching statement (both statements should address how the candidate will contribute to fostering a diverse and inclusive community); 4) three representative publications; 5) three letters of recommendation (sent directly by recommenders); and 6) a one- to two-page personal statement indicating how your research, teaching, and service will make a distinctive contribution to our University's mission and to the vision of Catholic education as outlined in the Apostolic Constitution on Catholic Universities Ex Corde Ecclesiae.

Review of files will begin on October 2, 2023, and continue until the position is filled. Questions about submission procedures can be directed to Mr. Vince Bunuan, at bunuan@cua.edu or at 202-319-5750.

The Catholic University of America is an Equal Opportunity Employer.