

Tenure-Track Assistant/Associate Professor of Statistics
Department of Mathematics · School of Arts & Sciences

The Department of Mathematics at The Catholic University of America seeks to fill a tenure-track position in Statistics to begin January 2, 2024. Applicants must have a Ph.D. in Statistics, research record, and teaching experience. The ideal candidate for this position will bring enthusiasm, teaching, and research excellence to contribute to current departmental efforts for developing programs related to statistics, and to the needs of the MPP program that is being built. The department has 11 full-time faculty members and offers Bachelor's and Master's degrees. For details, please visit our website: <https://mathematics.catholic.edu/index.html>.

We seek candidates who understand, are enthusiastic about, and will make a significant contribution to the mission of the University, which reads as follows: "As the national university of the Catholic Church in the United States, founded and sponsored by the bishops of the country with the approval of the Holy See, The Catholic University of America is committed to being a comprehensive Catholic and American institution of higher learning, faithful to the teachings of Jesus Christ as handed on by the Church. Dedicated to advancing the dialogue between faith and reason, The Catholic University of America seeks to discover and impart the truth through excellence in teaching and research, all in service to the Church, the nation and the world."

Duties include teaching undergraduate and graduate courses and engaging in research and professional activities. Applicants should have potential to engage students in undergraduate research and are expected to contribute to departmental service.

Applications should include the following:

- cover letter,
- curriculum vitae,
- teaching and research statement,
- the names and contact information of at least three references, and
- a one- to two-page personal statement indicating how your research, teaching, and service will make a distinctive contribution to our University's mission and to the vision of Catholic education outlined in the Apostolic Constitution on Catholic Universities Ex Corde Ecclesiae.

The review of applicants will start immediately and will continue until the position has been filled.
