Busch School of Business
Tenure-Track Assistant Professor in Accounting

The Busch School of Business at The Catholic University of America seeks candidates to fill a full-time, tenure-track position as an Assistant Professor of Accounting, to begin in August 2022.

The Catholic University of America is the national university of the Catholic Church with 6,000 undergraduate and graduate students in more than 180 academic programs on a residential campus in the heart of the nation's capital. The Tim and Steph Busch School of Business, founded in 2013, is committed to the application of Catholic Social Doctrine to business through thought leadership and formation of students as virtuous Catholic business leaders. The Busch School is housed in Maloney Hall, a beautiful century-old collegiate gothic building reopened in early 2019 after a $37 million renovation.

We seek candidates who understand, are enthusiastic about, and will make a significant contribution to the mission of the University, which reads as follows: “As the national university of the Catholic Church in the United States, founded and sponsored by the bishops of the country with the approval of the Holy See, The Catholic University of America is committed to being a comprehensive Catholic and American institution of higher learning, faithful to the teachings of Jesus Christ as handed on by the Church. Dedicated to advancing the dialogue between faith and reason, The Catholic University of America seeks to discover and impart the truth through excellence in teaching and research, all in service to the Church, the nation and the world.”

Appointment: The position is a tenure-track appointment at the rank of Assistant Professor, although candidates at other ranks will also be considered. Responsibilities include:

- research,
- teaching,
- and mentoring students, both undergraduate and graduate.

The successful candidate will have a strong commitment to excellence in teaching and will be expected to build a research program that will enhance the school’s reputation for innovation, engagement and impact.

Applicants must have a CPA and a doctoral degree in accounting or a related field, although ABDs will be considered.
Application: For fullest consideration, applications should be received by December 20, 2021. The application should include:

- a letter of interest
- a curriculum vitae
- three references
- sample publications
- a one- to two-page personal statement indicating how your teaching and service will make a distinctive contribution to our University’s mission and to the vision of Catholic education outlined in the Apostolic Constitution on Catholic Universities Ex Corde Ecclesiae.

Please submit the application package to Carol McHale at mchale@cua.edu.
