

Department of Modern Languages and Literatures, School of Arts and Sciences
Visiting Clinical Instructor / Assistant Professor, Hispanic Studies

The Department of Modern Languages and Literatures at The Catholic University of America in Washington, DC, invites applications for the position of Visiting Clinical Instructor/Assistant Professor of Hispanic Studies (non-tenure track, one-year contract), starting August 2022.

We seek candidates who understand, are enthusiastic about, and will make a significant contribution to the mission of the University.

Responsibilities include full-time teaching (4:4), coordination of beginning and/or intermediate level language courses, active participation in departmental events, and service on departmental committees. Applicants must have: native or near-native fluency in Spanish and English, ABD or Ph.D. (preferred) at time of appointment, and experience teaching Spanish language at an institution of higher education. Preference given to candidates specializing in at least one of the following areas: 1) Spanish pedagogy or applied linguistics, 2) Spanish for specific purposes (heritage, translation, business, legal); 3) Latin American and Afro-Hispanic cultural studies and literature. The ideal candidate will bring enthusiasm and proven teaching excellence to provide innovative instruction along with a strong sense of commitment to support our undergraduate program and to assist in developing outreach initiatives in the Hispanic community.

Appointment: Full-time, clinical-track visiting appointment at the rank of Instructor or Assistant Professor to begin in August 2022.

Application: For inquiries about the position and to submit application materials, please contact Dr. Margaret Ann Kassen, Chair (kassen@cua.edu). Applications should include:

- A letter of interest and curriculum vitae,
- Teaching portfolio with philosophy of teaching statement, teaching evaluations, and video-taped teaching sample,
- A one- to two-page personal statement indicating how your teaching and service will make a distinctive contribution to our University's mission and to the vision of Catholic education outlined in the Apostolic Constitution on Catholic Universities Ex Corde Ecclesiae, and
- Three letters of recommendation to be sent directly by referees.

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.
