Department of Politics, School of Arts and Sciences
Visiting Assistant Professor, Comparative Politics or International Relations

The Department of Politics at The Catholic University of America invites applications for a one-year Visiting Assistant Professor position in comparative politics or international relations, to begin in Fall 2022. Candidates should possess a strong commitment to scholarly research, teaching, and engaging with both undergraduate and graduate students in research. The search is open with respect to specialization, but candidates with expertise in democratization, international institutions, political economy, and/or Latin America are especially encouraged to apply.

We seek candidates who understand, are enthusiastic about, and will make a significant contribution to the mission of the University, which reads as follows: “As the national university of the Catholic Church in the United States, founded and sponsored by the bishops of the country with the approval of the Holy See, The Catholic University of America is committed to being a comprehensive Catholic and American institution of higher learning, faithful to the teachings of Jesus Christ as handed on by the Church. Dedicated to advancing the dialogue between faith and reason, The Catholic University of America seeks to discover and impart the truth through excellence in teaching and research, all in service to the Church, the nation and the world.”

Applicants should submit a cover letter, a curriculum vitae, a statement of current research plans, a statement of teaching philosophy, graduate school transcript, and a sample of written work to this link and arrange for the submission of three letters of reference to pol-search@cua.edu. In addition, applicants are asked to submit a one- to two-page personal statement indicating how their research, teaching, and service will make a distinctive contribution to our University’s mission and to the vision of Catholic education outlined in the Apostolic Constitution on Catholic Universities Ex Corde Ecclesiae.

Review of applications will begin on January 15, 2022, and will continue until the position is filled. Questions may be directed to Matthew Green, Department Chair, at greenm@cua.edu.
