Assistant Professor of Christian Near Eastern Languages

The Department of Semitic and Egyptian Languages and Literatures at The Catholic University of America seeks to fill a tenure-track Assistant Professor position in Christian Near Eastern Languages, to begin in Fall 2022.

The Department has a particular interest in candidates with strong skills in Classical Arabic and who also work extensively in Christian Arabic. Ideally, the candidate will also be able to teach at least one other Christian Near Eastern language, such as Armenian, Coptic, Ethiopic, Georgian, and/or Syriac, and thereby complement the existing strengths of the faculty. See the department website for information on courses regularly taught. Candidates should possess a strong commitment to scholarly research, teaching, and engaging with graduate students in research.

We seek candidates who understand, are enthusiastic about, and will make a significant contribution to the mission of the University, which reads as follows: “As the national university of the Catholic Church in the United States, founded and sponsored by the bishops of the country with the approval of the Holy See, The Catholic University of America is committed to being a comprehensive Catholic and American institution of higher learning, faithful to the teachings of Jesus Christ as handed on by the Church. Dedicated to advancing the dialogue between faith and reason, The Catholic University of America seeks to discover and impart the truth through excellence in teaching and research, all in service to the Church, the nation and the world.”

Applications should include the following:

- A curriculum vitae
- A letter of interest
- 1–3 sample publications
- teaching portfolio
- A list of at least three references
- A one- to two-page personal statement indicating how your research, teaching, and service will make a distinctive contribution to our University's mission and to the vision of Catholic education outlined in the Apostolic Constitution on Catholic Universities Ex Corde Ecclesiae.

Application materials should be sent via email to Dr. Andrew Gross (grossa@cua.edu) and be received by March 7, 2022.

Please direct any questions regarding this job announcement to Dr. Gross.
