

Full-time Faculty Positions in Finance and Sales

The Busch School of Business at The Catholic University of America seeks candidates to fill two full-time faculty positions to begin in August 2024.

The Catholic University of America is the national university of the Catholic Church with 6,000 undergraduate and graduate students in more than 180 academic programs on a residential campus in the heart of the nation's capital. The Tim and Steph Busch School of Business, founded in 2013, is committed to the application of Catholic Social Doctrine to business through thought leadership and the formation of students as virtuous Catholic business leaders. The Busch School is housed in Maloney Hall, a beautiful century-old collegiate gothic building that reopened in early 2019 after a $37 million renovation.

We seek candidates who understand, are enthusiastic about, and will make a significant contribution to the mission of the University, which reads as follows:

As the national university of the Catholic Church in the United States, founded and sponsored by the bishops of the country with the approval of the Holy See, The Catholic University of America is committed to being a comprehensive Catholic and American institution of higher learning, faithful to the teachings of Jesus Christ as handed on by the Church. Dedicated to advancing the dialogue between faith and reason, The Catholic University of America seeks to discover and impart the truth through excellence in teaching and research, all in service to the Church, the nation and the world.

The School is hiring in our Marketing & Sales Area (focused on growing the School's nationally-recognized Sales program); and our Finance Area (focused on leading our swiftly growing finance area).

Candidates for both tenure-track and practice positions are welcome to apply. Candidates are preferred at the rank of assistant professor, but candidates at other ranks will also be considered. Ideal candidates will have a passion for the School's mission, ample industry experience, enthusiasm for scaling fast-growing programs, and a strong commitment to excellence in teaching. Tenure-track candidates must have doctoral degrees and robust programs of relevant and rigorous research.

Responsibilities include: teaching at the undergraduate and graduate level; mentoring students; service to the department, school, university, and the profession; and academic research for tenure-track candidates.

The application should include:

- a letter of interest clearly articulating your areas of teaching, research and professional expertise, and the academic area within the Busch School (Finance or Sales) to which you are applying;
- a CV with three references; and
- a personal mission statement indicating how your teaching, service, and prior experience will make a distinctive contribution to the life of our School, our University's mission, and the vision of Catholic education outlined in the Apostolic Constitution on Catholic Universities, Ex Corde Ecclesiae.
  - This element is critical to the application. It will be reviewed at both the School and Provost-level.

The application packages are to be submitted to Associate Dean Anthony Cannizzaro (cannizzaro@cua.edu) using the subject line "Application for Busch School FT Faculty Position - [your last name]".
