

Clinical Assistant Professor of Philosophy
School of Philosophy

The School of Philosophy at The Catholic University of America seeks to fill a clinical-track position in philosophy at the rank of Assistant Professor, to begin in August 2024. The area of specialization is open, but a breadth of formation in the history of philosophy is expected, along with a record of serious scholarly engagement with a moment of that “history,” and evidence of success as an undergraduate philosophy instructor.

We seek candidates who understand, are enthusiastic about, and will make a significant contribution to the mission of the University, which reads as follows: “As the national university of the Catholic Church in the United States, founded and sponsored by the bishops of the country with the approval of the Holy See, The Catholic University of America is committed to being a comprehensive Catholic and American institution of higher learning, faithful to the teachings of Jesus Christ as handed on by the Church. Dedicated to advancing the dialogue between faith and reason, The Catholic University of America seeks to discover and impart the truth through excellence in teaching and research, all in service to the Church, the nation and the world.”

The principal duties that accrue to this position are in the undergraduate classroom only, as instructor for 6 courses per year (3 per semester) and serving as teaching mentor to PhD students in our graduate program. Candidates should have Ph.D. in hand at the time of appointment.

Applicants should include:

- i. a cover letter,
- ii. a curriculum vitae,
- iii. transcripts of all graduate work,
- iv. a writing sample,
- v. evidence of success as an undergraduate instructor,
- vi. three letters of reference, submitted separately by recommenders, and
- vii. a one- to two-page personal statement indicating how the candidate, through his or her research, teaching, and service, would make a distinctive contribution to the University’s mission and to the vision of Catholic education outlined in the Apostolic Constitution on Catholic Universities, Ex Corde Ecclesiae.

Questions may be addressed to John C. McCarthy, Dean of the School of Philosophy at mccartjc@cua.edu.

Submit complete application dossier to mccartjc@cua.edu.

To be ensured full consideration, applications should be submitted by April 31, although later applications may be considered. The position will remain open until filled.
