

Clinical Assistant Professor of Anatomy and Physiology
The Conway School of Nursing and the Biology Department

The Conway School of Nursing and the Department of Biology in the School of Arts and Sciences of The Catholic University of America seek to fill a joint Clinical Assistant Professor of Anatomy and Physiology position to begin August of 2024.

The successful candidate will have a doctoral degree in Biology and experience teaching Anatomy and Physiology.

We seek candidates who understand, are enthusiastic about, and will make a significant contribution to the mission of the University, which reads as follows: “As the national university of the Catholic Church in the United States, founded and sponsored by the bishops of the country with the approval of the Holy See, The Catholic University of America is committed to being a comprehensive Catholic and American institution of higher learning, faithful to the teachings of Jesus Christ as handed on by the Church. Dedicated to advancing the dialogue between faith and reason, The Catholic University of America seeks to discover and impart the truth through excellence in teaching and research, all in service to the Church, the nation and the world.”

Applications should include the following:

- A curriculum vitae
- A list of three references
- A cover letter
- A one- to two-page personal statement indicating how your research, teaching, and service will make a distinctive contribution to our University's mission and to the vision of Catholic education outlined in the Apostolic Constitution on Catholic Universities Ex Corde Ecclesiae.

Application materials and all questions about the position should be directed to Dr. Eileen Caufield (caufielde@cua.edu) and Dr. Pam Tuma (tuma@cua.edu). Review of applications will begin on May 15, 2024.

The Catholic University of America is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
