Tenure-Track or Contract Faculty

Catholic Law seeks to fill one or more faculty positions to begin in Fall 2025. We are seeking candidates for entry-level or lateral positions, tenure-track or contract, in a variety of subjects, including Corporate and Securities Law, Commercial Law, Professional Responsibility, and Evidence.

We are also seeking candidates whose teaching and research interests may be in any of the above subject matter areas (or others, such as International Law and Human Rights) who are also interested in participating in our University's Institute for Latin American and Iberian Studies. A U.S. law degree is strongly preferred.

Catholic Law is a national leader in preparing students of all faiths for the practice of law and is an integral part of The Catholic University of America, the national university of the Catholic Church, located on a beautiful residential campus in the heart of the nation's capital.

Candidates must possess a J.D. or equivalent, superior academic credentials, and relevant professional experience, such as teaching, legal practice, or judicial clerkships. The application should include a letter of interest, CV, research agenda, references, sample publications, and a personal statement addressing how your research, teaching, and service would make a distinctive contribution to the mission of our University and law school and the vision of Catholic education outlined in the Apostolic Constitution on Catholic Universities, Ex Corde Ecclesiae.

Interested applicants should email their materials to the attention of Dean Stephen Payne at lanerk@cua.edu.

As a Catholic institution, our mission commits us to respecting the “dignity of each human person,” and to welcoming scholars who will bring a “diversity of backgrounds, religious affiliations, viewpoints, and contributions” to the law school’s vibrant intellectual community.
