

THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY OF AMERICA

The Busch School of Business

Assistant Professor of Practice, Church Management

The Busch School of Business at The Catholic University of America seeks candidates to fill a full-time position as Assistant Professor of Practice in our Church Management Program, to begin in August 2025.

The Catholic University of America is the national university of the Catholic Church with over 5,000 undergraduate and graduate students in more than 180 academic programs on a residential campus in the heart of the nation's capital. The Tim and Steph Busch School of Business, founded in 2013, is committed to the application of Catholic Social Doctrine to business through thought leadership and the formation of students as virtuous Catholic business leaders. The Busch School is housed in Maloney Hall, a beautiful century-old collegiate gothic building that reopened in early 2019 after a $37 million renovation.

We seek candidates who understand, are enthusiastic about, and will make a significant contribution to the mission of the University, which reads as follows:

As the national university of the Catholic Church in the United States, founded and sponsored by the bishops of the country with the approval of the Holy See, The Catholic University of America is committed to being a comprehensive Catholic and American institution of higher learning, faithful to the teachings of Jesus Christ as handed on by the Church. Dedicated to advancing the dialogue between faith and reason, The Catholic University of America seeks to discover and impart the truth through excellence in teaching and research, all in service to the Church, the nation and the world.

The position is a professor of practice appointment at the rank of assistant professor. Ideal candidates will have teaching and practical expertise in both business and in the Church, and will be able to support the flourishing of the School's fast-growing Master of Science in Ecclesial Administration and Management and other church management programs.

Responsibilities include: teaching at the graduate level, mentoring students, and service to the program, school, and university.

Candidates should have a passion for the School's mission, a relevant and rigorous research agenda, and a strong commitment to excellence in teaching. Applicants must have a doctoral degree in business or a related field.

For full consideration, applications should be received by Friday, April 18, 2025. The application should include:

- a letter of interest clearly articulating your areas of teaching and research expertise
- CV
- three references
- a personal mission statement indicating how your teaching, service, and prior experience will make a distinctive contribution to the life of our School, our University's mission, and the vision of Catholic education outlined in the Apostolic Constitution on Catholic Universities, Ex Corde Ecclesiae.

The application packages are to be submitted to Vice Dean Anthony Cannizzaro (cannizzaro@cua.edu) using the subject line "Application for MEAM Faculty Position - [your last name]".

The Catholic University of America is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
