

Tenure-Track or Contract Faculty Position · Law & Entrepreneurship
Columbus School of Law

Catholic Law is seeking candidates to fill a new position in Law & Entrepreneurship as either a contract or tenure-track position starting in August 2026. The successful candidate will launch a new clinic at the law school in law and entrepreneurship, supervising students and managing the clinic's affairs. We are also seeking candidates whose teaching and research interests include Business Associations, Securities Law, Contracts, Commercial Law, and other business law courses. A U.S. law degree is strongly preferred.

Catholic Law is a national leader in preparing students of all faiths for the practice of law and is an integral part of The Catholic University of America, the national university of the Catholic Church, located on a beautiful residential campus in the heart of the nation's capital. Candidates must possess a J.D. or equivalent, superior academic credentials, and relevant professional experience, such as teaching, legal practice, or judicial clerkships.

The application should include a letter of interest, CV, research agenda, references, sample publications, and a personal statement addressing how his or her research, teaching, and service would make a distinctive contribution to the mission of our University and law school and the vision of Catholic education outlined in the Apostolic Constitution on Catholic Universities, Ex Corde Ecclesiae. Interested applicants should email their materials to the attention of Dean Stephen Payne at lanerk@cua.edu.

As a Catholic institution, our mission commits us to respecting the “dignity of each human person,” and to welcoming scholars who will bring a “diversity of backgrounds, religious affiliations, viewpoints, and contributions” to the law school’s vibrant intellectual community.

The Catholic University of America is an Equal Opportunity Employer.