

Tenure-Track Professor of Thomism
School of Theology and Religious Studies

The School of Theology and Religious at The Catholic University of America seeks to fill a tenure-track, open-rank position in Thomism, to begin in Fall 2026.

We seek candidates who understand, are enthusiastic about, and will make a significant contribution to the mission of the University, which reads as follows: “As the national university of the Catholic Church in the United States, founded and sponsored by the bishops of the country with the approval of the Holy See, The Catholic University of America is committed to being a comprehensive Catholic and American institution of higher learning, faithful to the teachings of Jesus Christ as handed on by the Church. Dedicated to advancing the dialogue between faith and reason, The Catholic University of America seeks to discover and impart the truth through excellence in teaching and research, all in service to the Church, the nation and the world.”

The School encourages applications from candidates with a robust research agenda in Thomism. The successful candidate will possess a doctoral degree (Ph.D. or S.T.D.). The successful candidate will also show readiness to teach in the undergraduate, graduate, and seminary programs, advise students, direct theses and dissertations, and serve on committees of the School and University. Rank and salary will be determined on the basis of academic credentials and publication record.

Applications should include the following:

- A cover letter
- A curriculum vitae
- A one- to two-page personal statement indicating how your research, teaching, and service will make a distinctive contribution to our University's mission and to the vision of Catholic education outlined in the Apostolic Constitution on Catholic Universities Ex Corde Ecclesiae, and for Ecclesiastical Faculties, Veritatis Gaudium.

Upon favorable initial review, candidate will be asked to present:

- Three letters of recommendation
- For priests or religious, a letter of endorsement by the applicant's ecclesiastical superior is required

Review of applications will begin in Fall 2025 and continue until the position is filled. To apply, please send the required materials to the Chair of Thomism Search Committee of the School of Theology and Religious Studies at trs-jobs@cua.edu.
