

Conway School of Nursing
Clinical Assistant/Associate Professor · Associate Dean for MSN Specialty and DNP Programs

The Conway School of Nursing (CSON) at The Catholic University of America seeks to fill an approved full-time (11 months), benefits-eligible, Clinical Assistant/Associate Professor, FNP or Psychiatric Nurse Practitioner and Associate Dean for MSN Specialty and DNP Programs to begin in Fall 2024, or as soon as possible.

The CSON is distinguished for preparing expert clinicians, nurse scientists, and moral leaders in nursing. The CSON is CCNE accredited and has over 500 students enrolled in BSN, MSN, DNP, and PhD programs. The BSN students participate in study abroad opportunities in Australia and Rome. The 2023 BSN graduate 1st time NCLEX pass rate was 96 %. The on-line DNP programs prepare family nurse practitioners (FNPs), adult-gerontological nurse practitioners-acute care (AGNP-AC) and pediatric nurse practitioners-primary care (PNP-PC) and pediatric nurse practitioners dual primary and acute care (PNP-Dual). Post-graduate APRN certificate program tracks are also available. The on-line BSN to DNP program focuses on advanced practice nursing and leadership and the MSN to DNP program focuses on leadership in advanced nursing practice. The on-line PhD program prepares expert clinicians as nurse scientists.

We seek candidates with academic leadership experience who understand, are enthusiastic about, and will make a significant contribution to the mission of the University, which reads as follows: “As the national university of the Catholic Church in the United States, founded and sponsored by the bishops of the country with the approval of the Holy See, The Catholic University of America is committed to being a comprehensive Catholic and American institution of higher learning, faithful to the teachings of Jesus Christ as handed on by the Church. Dedicated to advancing the dialogue between faith and reason, The Catholic University of America seeks to discover and impart the truth through excellence in teaching and research, all in service to the Church, the nation and the world.”

Minimum Qualifications: 1. Earned (PhD or DNP); 2. Academic Leadership Experience, 3. Teaching experience; 4. Record of scholarly achievement (publications and research); 5. APRN licensure in Washington, DC; 6. Proven ability to mentor students; 7. Competence in the use of technology (e.g., Blackboard, Zoom); 8. Excellent communication skills; and 9. Demonstrated ability to function effectively in large, complex organization and to work productively and collaboratively with individuals and groups.

Responsibilities: The faculty member and associate dean will lead the MSN specialty and DNP programs in collaboration with the Associate Dean for Doctoral Programs and will supervise and mentor the faculty directors of the population specific NP Program including FNP, Adult Gerontological Primary, Adult Gerontological Acute, Pediatric Primary and Acute. This faculty member will engage in teaching and collaborate on research and scholarship in areas of priority identified by the CSON. Professional, school, and university service activities are all associated with this position.

The faculty will be expected to: 1. Teach in the graduate or undergraduate programs in the CSON, as needed; 2. Serve on student scholarly projects or research dissertations; 3. Maintain a program of scholarship; 4. Engage in interdisciplinary collaboration among university and external researchers; and 5. Serve as a member on CSON committees and as CSON liaison on university committees.

Application requirements include:

- A curriculum vitae
- Two letters of recommendation
- A one- to two-page personal statement indicating how your research, teaching, and service will make a distinctive contribution to our University's mission and to the vision of Catholic education outlined in the Apostolic Constitution on Catholic Universities Ex Corde Ecclesiae.

Please forward all application documents to Mr. Patrick Maxwell, Manager for Operations and Marketing, Conway School of Nursing, at maxwellp@cua.edu.
