

School of Arts and Sciences / Department of Modern Languages and Literatures
Visiting Clinical Assistant Professor of French

The Department of Modern Languages and Literatures at The Catholic University of America in Washington, DC, invites applications for the one-year replacement position of Visiting Clinical Assistant Professor of French and Francophone Studies (non-tenure track), August 2020-August 2021. We seek candidates who understand, are enthusiastic about, and will make a significant contribution to our University's mission.

We are looking to hire a generalist with enthusiasm and proven teaching excellence to provide innovative instruction in face to face, hybrid, and online classes, along with a strong sense of commitment to building our undergraduate program. Responsibilities include full-time undergraduate teaching (4:4), coordination of beginning and/or intermediate level classes, active participation in departmental events, and service on departmental committees. Applicants must have native or near-native fluency in French and English, and a Ph. D. in hand at time of appointment. Training in technology-enhanced language instruction and language acquisition strongly preferred. The position is full-time and comes with a full benefits package.

For inquiries about the position and to submit your application materials, please contact Dr. Margaret Ann Kassen, Chair of the Department of Modern Languages and Literatures (kassen@cua.edu). To apply, please submit the following documents:

- a letter of interest and curriculum vitae
- three letters of recommendation or the names of three references
- recent teaching evaluations
- a one- to two-page personal statement indicating how your research, teaching, and service will make a distinctive contribution to our University's mission and the vision of Catholic education outlined in the Apostolic Constitution on Catholic Universities Ex Corde Ecclesiae.

The Catholic University of America is the national university of the Catholic Church and was founded as a center of research and scholarship.

For questions, contact Dr. Margaret Ann Kassen, Chair of the Department of Modern Languages and Literatures (kassen@cua.edu). Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

The Catholic University of America is an Equal Opportunity Employer.